

WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

BEST BUY July 2002

Stonehedge 2000 California Zinfandel $10.

“Pretty nice for a statewide appellation, with true Zin characteristics of wild, brambly berries. The alcohol is high and the wine is very dry, a full-throttle assault on the senses, with its maximum load of jammy fruit. Nothing subtle, just a bases-loaded, ripe wine that leaves little to the imagination.” 86 points (85-89 Very good to Excellent)

